The Mountain of the Lord's House ..."

This is not a reference to the Jewish temple, but to the Church of Christ. "Ye are the temple of God" (1 Corinthians 3:16). Perhaps the most difficult portion of this prophecy to understand is that which speaks of beating swords into plowshares and spears into pruning hooks, which is often misunderstood to teach that war shall pass away as an instrument of national policy and that universal peace on earth shall prevail. This is totally in error. Christ himself taught that "there shall be wars and rumors of wars" throughout the current dispensation" (Matthew 24:6). What we actually have, therefore, is a statement of the way it will be among the citizens of the kingdom of God, or the church of Christ. The prophet is certainly not speaking of the world, for its peoples will war continually, but rather of the all nations and many peoples who will come to Lord's house. The fulfillment of this prophecy is seen in the general practice of believers in all generations. Except for the example of the apostate Medieval Roman church's acceptance of war as an instrument used to further their secular ends, God's people have consistently rejected war as an instrument of evangelism or for any other purpose. This is a sure indication that denies authenticity, in the sight of Christ, to the followers of Mohammed.
